

This work belongs to _____

The Sounds of oi and oy --

Directions: Complete each sentence by choosing the word that makes the most sense. Circle your answer.

1. The meat will (coil, joyful, spoil) if you leave it out there.
2. You look (joyful, alloy, royal) when you dance.
3. He will (foil, toil, Roy) in the farmer's field.
4. I will (join, soil, Roy) the two pieces of wood.
5. I didn't like the way the (join, joy, boy) played at recess.
6. I am so happy! I am full of (joy, toil, foil).
7. The soldiers are (royal, loyal, decoy) to there leader.
8. The children will (royal, rejoice, toy) on the last day of school.
9. I will (broil, joyful, enjoy) my steak until it is well done.
10. The plow will dig up the (joy, boy, soil) .