

Name _____

Practice listening for long vowel sounds – following the vowel digraph rule. Say the picture word slowly and listen to the sounds. Listen for the beginning sound(s)– the long vowel sound – and the ending sound.

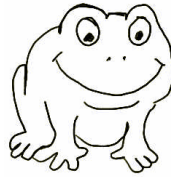

Remember– the first vowel cries out its own name, the other is silent.

l ee
b ie

j ay
d ow

b ee d
t oa l

fl ue
bl ie

s ui t
w ow ch

t ay
bl oe

w oa d r ea p

t ai nt
p ea nk

Mack had a bee on his nose!

The jay did fly away.

I saw a toad in the road this morning.

My favorite color is blue.

Dad put on a new suit today.

I hit my toe on the big rock.

Cando is helping me to read.

Do you like to paint?