This work belongs to _____

Directions: Read each sentence and then choose what kind of sentence you think it is. Sometimes you can use the punctuation mark at the end of the sentence for clues to help you.

1. Where are the cats?
A. statement   B. command   C. question   D. exclamation

2. Pour the soda into the glass.
A. statement   B. command   C. question   D. exclamation

3. May I stir in the sugar and salt?
A. statement   B. command   C. question   D. exclamation

4. The cake smells so good as it is baking!
A. statement   B. command   C. question   D. exclamation

5. This is the best cake that we have ever made!
A. statement   B. command   C. question   D. exclamation

6. Do we need more help?
A. statement   B. command   C. question   D. exclamation

7. Let's make more cakes!
A. statement   B. command   C. question   D. exclamation

8. We will eat the cake after dinner.
A. statement   B. command   C. question   D. exclamation

9. Turn off the radio.
A. statement   B. command   C. question   D. exclamation

10. The map is easy to follow.
A. statement   B. command   C. question   D. exclamation